FANO Announces Recipient of 2011 Lawton's Heart Humanitarian Award:

As a chiropractor and as the International CEO of Home At Last Adoption Agency in Cocoa Beach (a nonprofit), Dr. Fornes has dedicated her life to the wellbeing of others. Home At Last has helped families navigate the adoption process for 20 years, with a focus on finding homes for hard-to-place children. With her husband Al Neuharth, founder of USA Today, she has opened her heart and her pocketbook to many, many others. The presentation will take place on Wednesday, August 10 during the conference opening reception from 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm.

Expertise & Prestige at FANO's 20th FL Nonprofit Conference

Speakers from across the US, Florida and Local will join in addressing over 200 Nonprofit Leaders on Aug. 10-11 in Clearwater:

Bill Huddleston is author of the soon-to-be released "CFC Fundraising Secrets, The Insider's Guide to the Combined Federal Campaign," plus many articles on workplace giving. Bill, a Virginia resident, earned his MPA in Nonprofit Management from George Mason University, served in the Federal sector in many CFC roles, and has worked extensively in the nonprofit world as well. (Philanthropists and More 8/11/11)

Alexa Stone, CEO and founder of ecoPreserve in Orlando, has over 20 years of experience in the energy and electronics industry. Dubbed the "Queen of Green," Alexa helps organizations move their own "green teams" toward measurable goals, and increase revenue by leveraging strategic sustainability sales initiatives. (Strategies that Address Game Changes 8/11/11)

Naomi Wright CPC, has had an extensive career in the fields of networking, personal development, public/community relations and media. She serves several South Florida boards, committees and youth projects, including: Chair of the Citizen's Transportation Advisory Committee (CTAC), Past Chair and current Vice-Chair of FANO's Board of Directors. (Marketing/Special Events pre-conference certification event—8/10/11)
